EATON'S and the DOMINION have grown up together

The fledgling Dominion has become a sturdy young nation of the world.

The little sprout of a store that began in 1869 is now a Canada-wide source of supply and service.

EATON'S rejoices with Canada in the large measure of peace and prosperity which has been restored to this favored land.

CARBON NEWS

Despite the inclement weather and the poor condition of the roads there was a good attendance at the I.O.D.E. Rose Ball in the Scout Hall Friday evening.

Mrs. Ray McMann and children left this week for Chilliwack, B. C., where they will reside.

The sun was too much for Herman Coates on Wednesday. While working on the roof of the new drug store he more or less "passed out" from the heat. Herman says he must be getting "soft."

Merle Anderson has almost completed tearing down the old livery barn in town. Merle plans on building a machine shed with the material.

Mr. Ross Thorburn is visiting at Nelson, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Rowe and Mr. and Mrs. M. Switzer spent Wednesday afternoon in Calgary.

Bill Ross is limping around town these days the result of an accident at the farm. Bill claims a plank fell on his foot but we heard it was one of those Yorkshires he has cut there that took a nip out of his leg.

Jim Chong, Carbon and Harry Wong, Drumheller, have taken over the Carbon Cafe.

A bouquet to Claude Crossman. His was the only business establishment in Carbon to have a flag flying on Dominion Day.

Did you notice Otto Schielke's "shiner?" Otto had a brand new story about that one. It appears the repair men left a manhole cover off the extreme top of the Pool elevator and Otto undertook to replace it. The lid was stuck and wouldn't fit so good so he got the old hammer out, hooked the claws in the side of the lid and pulled. The board gave way and hammer flew back hitting him in the eye. Oh, well, it's new at any rate. Beats running into a door.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bessant left on Sunday for a month's holiday at the Pacific Coast.

The Carbon Baptist Church convention got under way on Wednesday evening with a large attendance.

Ross Dunlop who is employed by Valley Motors at Drumheller was home for the July 1 holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Adams were Sylvan Lake visitors on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nash and family and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nash spent Tuesday fishing at Pine Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schielke and family are holidaying in Edmonton and Northern Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Carlson of Drumheller and Mr. and Mrs. Denis of Seattle were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Nash Wednesday.

Christ Church Service

A service will be held in Christ Church, Carbon, Sunday, July 6th at 7.30 p.m., Ven Archdeacon Axon in charge.

Rev. Hinchey Bids Farewell to His Many Carbon and Irricana Friends

Rev. R. R. Hinchey preached farewell messages to large congregations on Sunday at Carbon and Irricana churches.

On the previous Monday evening a congregational supper was held in the Carbon church in honour of the departing pastor after a seven years ministry. Mrs. H. R. Brown on behalf of the three Ladies' Aids of the church presented Mr. Hinchey with a Gladstone bag and Mr. S. F. Torrance on behalf of the congregation gave him a substantial cheque.

The Young People's Union tendered their pastor a delightfully prepared banquet and program recently. Miss Ruth Simpson, the United Church deaconess at Drumheller was guest speaker. Mr. W. E. Lambert on behalf of the Union presented the guest of honor with an electric razor.

On Sunday morning the Sunday School superintendent, Mr. Len Poxon, gave Mr. Hinchey "A small remembrance of the many hours spent together in Carbon Sunday School."

At Irricana on Sunday evening at a social gathering after the service Mr. L. W. Bond, chairman of the board of managers, on behalf of the congregation and community presented Mr. Hinchey with a pen and pencil set and purse of money. The Irricana Ladies' Aid made a presentation of a fluorescent desk lamp.

Mr. Arthur Craig, member of the Church Board, spoke sincere words of appreciation for the seven years faithful service of their pastor and the esteem he would always hold in the hearts of the Irricana people.

Rev. S. N. McCune and Rev. R. L. Byrd of the Church of the BrMethren, Irricana, also spoke.

Rev. Hinchey leaves this week for his new pastorate at Erskine United Church, Edmonton with the best wishes of his many Carbon and Irricana friends.

During the last three Sundays in July he will be guest preacher in Trinity United Church, Vancouver.

During the past seven years Rev. Hinchey performed 124 baptisms, officiated at 27 wedding and 24 funerals.

During the same period the membership of Carbon and Irricana churches have more than doubled. Fifty new members were received into the churches during the year 1946.

THAT INCOME TAX SAVING

It's

MONEY IN THE BANK...

if you're Smart

NEXT pay-day your pay cheque will be bigger... because the reduction in your income tax will be effective.

Think of that increase as a raise in pay—as money in your pocket. Whether your income is $2,000 or $20,000, it's something extra to use in your own design for living.

For some people it's going to mean more money to spend—an easier time in personal financing. That's good for most of us.

But is that all? Not for the wise ones. Wise folk won't let all that money slip through their fingers... Some will save 10%—some 50%... and some will save it all.

Plan your finances now for 1947... figure out your tax saving and see that a good lump of this money in your pocket is labelled "money in the bank".

For many people that's going to mean "money in My Bank"... where more than a million Canadians—sound citizens who know what saving means—do their personal financing.

You will be very welcome in this good company.

Something to show for it...

Don't just leave your income tax saving with the rest of what you have remaining after pay-day. You're apt to lose track of it too easily.

If you're wise you'll open a special savings account for it and do a real dollar-building job. Call it your "Income Saving Account" and make it live up to its name.

Later, you'll be glad you did... you'll be able and ready to buy those things you want most.

It's an opportunity to start saving really systematically, and a B of M savings account will help you. Open one at your nearest branch today.

The Refugee Problem

MANY OF THE GRAVE PROBLEMS which resulted from the war are still unsolved, and it is evident that it may be some time before satisfactory solutions have been found for all of them. One that is still causing considerable concern is the finding of homes for the many thousands of displaced persons who are still in camps in various parts of Europe. At present there are between 600,000 and 700,000 people in such camps, and Sir Herbert Emerson, director-general of the inter-governmental committee on refugees has predicted that it will be at least three years before homes are found for all these people. Although such large numbers are still homeless, it is evident that much progress has been made since the end of the war in dealing with this tragic and difficult problem, since the records show that 11,000,000 refugees have already returned to their native countries.

Many Look For New Homes

Of those now numbered among the displaced persons are many thousands who do not wish to return to their own lands, and arrangements are now being made for them to be admitted to countries where there is a scarcity of labor. Within the next eighteen months it is expected that several hundred thousand European refugees and their dependents may be taken to Britain. France has plans for bringing in large numbers of displaced persons to work in her industries, while Belgium has expressed the intention of admitting some 35,000 workers, with their dependents. Eight thousand workers have already gone to Holland, taking their dependents with them. It is also expected that some will be placed in South America and the British Dominions.

Some Have Been Admitted Here

In Canada there has been considerable interest in the problem of displaced persons. Already about 6,000 refugees, who are relatives of Canadian citizens have been admitted to this country as well as small numbers of workers who have been brought in under special arrangements. Investigations have also been made into the possibilities of bringing in lumbermen, sugar beet workers, textile workers and others with specialized trades. It would seem heartless, indeed, for Canada to hesitate to do her part in helping to rehabilitate these people who suffered so greatly during the war. The question, however, is related to many broader problems, including immigration and present standards of wages and living. There are many diverse opinions regarding these matters, but it would appear that Canadians should not be unwilling to assist to some extent at least in bringing about an end to this problem, which at best cannot be completely solved for several years.

ORIGIN OF PHRASE

Boats were used to build emergency bridges for use in wartime. The bridges were burned as the retreat went on when an army had to give way, and thus we got the phrase, "to burn one's bridges."

Beef Upside Down Pie

1½ cups flour      ¾ cup milk, or half milk and half water
1 tsp. salt      ¾ cup sliced onion
1 tsp. celery salt      1 can condensed tomato soup
¾ tsp. white pepper      ¾ lb. ground raw beef
5 lbs. shortening      3 tsp. Magic Baking Powder

Sift together flour, baking powder, ½ tsp. salt, celery salt and pepper; add 3 tablespoons shortening; mix in thoroughly with fork. Add milk and stir until blended. Melt remaining two tablespoons shortening in 9" frying pan, and cook onions until soft. Add tomato soup, remaining ½ teaspoon salt and ground meat; bring to boil. Spread baking powder mixture on top of meat mixture and bake at 475°F. for about 20 minutes. Turn out upside down on large plate. Serves 8.

A travelling salesman who got married and took his bride South on their honeymoon, visited a certain hotel where they boasted of the fine quality of their honey.

The first morning, at the breakfast table, the groom said to the waiter: "Sam, where's my honey?"

"Golly, I don't know, boss," answered Sam, eyeing the bride cautiously. "She don't work here no mo'."

Then there was the overstuffed dowager who complained that if the photographer took her picture in profile it would show only one eye.

"Never mind, madam," said the photographer, "your profile will show both of your chins."

Woman—"No, he raises pigs!"

The teacher had asked her class to think up some outstanding examples of wasted energy.

"All right, Freddy, what's yours?" asked the teacher.

"Telling a hair-raising story to a bald-headed man."

"Why do they call it a dental parlor?"

"Parlor is another name for drawing-room."

Bricklayer: "I'd like to work here, but I can't find a place to park my car."

Foreman: "I guess you won't do. We want only bricklayers with chauffeurs."

Sympathizing Friend: "You must miss your husband very much, Mrs. Prosser."

Widow: "Well, yes; it does seem strange to come into the shop and find something in the till!"

A Scotsman was told by his doctor that his wife should have had her tonsils taken out when she was a little girl. He had the operation performed—and sent the bill to his father-in-law!

Folks are getting more business-like in New York. Business man met a friend the other day and invited: "Come in with me and I'll buy you a cup of coffee."
"Oh, just give me the dime," said the friend. "I'm in a hurry."

Having finished a lesson on the Feast of the Passover, a Sunday school teacher asked:

"Now, why was it that Mary and Joseph took Jesus with them to Jerusalem?"

Mary, aged four (smiling understandingly)—"I guess they didn't have a sitter."

Mess Sergeant: "You're not eating your fish. What's wrong with it?"

Soldier: "Long time no sea."

BRITAIN WANTS TO BUY FROM CANADA

That Denmark will capture the United Kingdom beacon export trade is a wrong attitude of mind and "I am surprised at a note of defeatism among Canadian farmers regarding this business," Sir Andrew Jones, head of a British food mission, said at a reception in Lindsay, Ont. He said the Canadian farmer has the food stuff right at his door, can produce a good export bacon which can compete, and, "we as a people, have a natural preference for Canadian goods. We want to buy in Canada but we must buy on the best market when it comes to price."

"COUGAR COLLEGE" STARTED IN B.C.

VANCOUVER—Something unusual in the way of education will be undertaken by the British Columbia government shortly when a school for cougar hunters is opened on Vancouver Island.

The "Cougar College" will be part of the B.C. game commission's new predatory animal control plan and its head will be Jimmy Dewar, Chief Game Warden for B.C., who has gained the reputation of "King of the Cougar Hunters".

Dewar, who stays on the trail until "I get the cat", left here on a little business trip—to hunt and kill a ferocious male cougar on nearby Bowen Island which has been reported causing damage to property and endangering livestock.

Hunter of the dangerous puma for 20 years, Dewar will have at the school five cougar hounds imported at $500 each, from Arizona to form a nucleus for scientifically planned kennels to breed cougar hounds.

VETERANS MARKET GOWNS MADE FROM FLOUR SACKS

VANCOUVER. — "Looking like a flour sack" need not be a derogatory term any more since three Second World War veterans formed the McQueen, White & Dickinson Co., to compete in the fashion world.

They had noticed the drab, ragged garments worn by people in war-ravaged and impoverished countries and decided on their new idea—colored flour sacks which could be turned into wearing apparel after the flour was delivered.

First they made a survey into the preferences of the different countries and then purchased 20,000 yards of the colorful, dual-purpose sacks in three designs—flowered, striped and plain.

Now milady in China, Greece, Poland, South America and the Philippines is proudly showing off the latest word in flour sack frocks—"made in Vancouver".

Large Crowd at Memorial Service

A very impressive service was held in the Carbon Park beside the newly erected Memorial on Sunday, June 29th.

The service was sponsored by the Carbon branch of the Canadian Legion. Legion members and members of the I.O.D.E. paraded from the Legion Hall to the Memorial. The Guard of Honor was four personnel of His Majesty's Forces and the Mounted Police in full uniform and one was placed at each corner of the Memorial. The service was conducted by an ex army chaplain, Rev. Brown of Drumheller. The bugler was

Mr. LaRue of Drumheller. The wreath was laid by Mrs. Switzer who wore her Nursing Sister uniform.

The members of the Legion wish to give thanks to all who helped to make the service a success especially Rev. Brown, Mr. LaRue, Mrs. Switzer and the I.O.D.E.

OUR HALF ACRE

By J. G. Umbrite

Weed Control on Road Allowances

During the past weeks weeds on the road allowance have made their unsightly appearance. Yellow Mustard has made its appearance on practically every road allowance in the district. Every farmer should realize the seriousness of an infestation of this weed and if any of it is noticed on the road allowance bordering his land steps should be taken to destroy it. A little time spent now pulling or cutting it will save much time and money in the future.

Under the provisions of the Noxious Weeds Act it is the responsibility of the owner or leasee to prevent the growth of noxious weeds on any land. Land means and includes the land up to and including the centre line of the road or road allowance.

It is the farmer who benefits when the weeds on the roadside are destroyed. If the weeds are allowed to mature they are a source of seed that will probably infest adjoining cultivated land. Many a relatively clean field has become with weeds that have come from the road allowance. Roadside weeds also harbor insects and fungus pests that may spread to neighboring crop plants.

There are several methods by which weed growth on the road can be destroyed. Mowing is probably the most widely used method. It is however only a control measure and not an eradication method. It usually requires at least two mowings to successfully keep the weeds down. Where the infestation is only light hand pulling is a satisfactory method of control.

Roadsides that have been seeded down to grass are seldom troublesome as far as weeds are concerned. Grass seed is provided by the municipality for this purpose. For further information regarding grass seed contact your local councillor or the field supervisor, municipal office, Three Hills.

BEISEKER NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. John Tyrrell of Vancouver are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Verhaest.

Leo Scheffolmaier, Tony Hagel, Simon Schwengler and Tony Schmaltz have left for Banff and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Barch and Mr. and Mrs. S. Barch of Harvey, N.D., spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O Ternes and Mr. and Mrs. Ike Ternes. They left by car for Yakima, Wash., where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Selsler have left for Kelowna, B.C., where they will visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Ruth Walker was married to Hugo Taves on Monday.

Teamwork is a method of production even more productive than machines.

"NOW WATCH ME WIN THAT RIBBON!"

SANDY SIMPSON has been patiently improving his dairy herd. He saw his chance to buy a pure bred bull — and the manager of his bank lent him the ready cash to close the deal. Now he's expecting great things of his new calf; already he sees her winning her class at next year's Fall Fair. A few more like her and he can also see his milk production rising — as well as a nice extra income from selling his surplus stock to neighbouring farmers.

Branch banks, in rural communities across Canada, help to build prosperous farms . . . and at the same time help increase the flow of food to family tables both at home and in distant lands.

MOST OF US DON'T KNOW

Hardly anyone — not even the publisher — knows how important a newspaper is to a community.

The smaller the town or village, the more important the newspaper is in its economic life. Its news, editorials and feature stories focus the interest of surrounding territory on the place in which the paper is published.

This force and the force of advertisements by local merchants build an ever-widening trade area. This means more business, more money for schools, homes and churches—a bigger and better town.

A town with a newspaper is a town with a future. The better the paper, the brighter the future.

It deserves the support of every business man in that town.

We are trying to make this paper worthy of our town. Your help and suggestions are appreciated.

Free Services For Farmers

For the purpose of assisting the farmers of Canada to meet the economic problems with which they are constantly confronted and to carry on the industry of Canadian agriculture to the advantage of the nation as a whole, the Dominion Government has several millions of dollars invested in free services and facilities.

No other industry has at its disposal such a wide and varied range of services and facilities provided by the Government. They include the Dominion-wide system of Experimental Farms and Stations, the divisions of Dairy Research, Botany and Plant Pathology, Chemistry, Entomology and Plant Protection of the Science Service, the divisions of Health of Animals, Plant Production and Livestock with their field services of the Production Service, the Marketing Service, in which is centralized the administration of all grading services of livestock and livestock products, dairy products, poultry, eggs, fruit, vegetables, canned goods, maple products and honey, and the Division of Agricultural Economics, which serves as a fact-finding body concerning production and marketing.

Results of the research work and experiments of all these services of the Dominion Department of Agriculture are made known to farmers and the people of Canada generally through free publications, the press and radio, exhibits and other ways directed by the Publicity and Extension Division.

Those engaged in the industry of Agriculture, whether directly or indirectly, are invited to make full use of the services and facilities as outlined. They are free.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

Minerva's Basket

By ELAINE FRANCIS

MINERVA Miller on her way to stay with the Jordan children paused in front of Decker's Antique shop. By scrunching her neck she could see her clock and its price tag. Twenty-five dollars! When she had sold her possessions to defray the expense of papa's funeral, Decker had begrudgingly given her three. Well, that was the way of the world and no sense complaining. She was a very lucky woman to have found her niche this late in life, and luckier to have saved almost twenty-five dollars from her baby-sitting fees. She stared longingly at the ornate mass of black onyx with cherubs entwined around its base and yearned for tomorrow when it would again be hers.

Mrs. Jordan, a picture in pale yellow and sables, was standing beside her car when Minerva arrived. "Oh, there you are," she called with relief. "I'll be at the Civic Convention, Hotel Taft, if you need me. Mr. Jordan's staying in town so you won't have to fuss. Just give the children bacon and eggs and put them to bed early. I'll be home tomorrow afternoon. And with that she was gone.

The eight-year-old twins came shrilling out of the house. "How's Minerva, the wise old owl," Billy shrieked, dancing around her.

"Fine," Minerva replied, "and glad to see you." Knowing from past experience how hard it was to amuse them, she suggested taking a walk.

"I won't go," Molly said flatly. "I want to stay right here." She sat on a rigid folding chair, her lips pouting and her large eyes staring.

"Those dopey Ryan kids down the block," Billy explained, "are having a party and didn't invite us. Molly doesn't want them to see us. Silly goop, who cares?"

But it was clear that he too cared. Why weren't they invited, Minerva wondered, the Jordans were as prosperous and respectable as any of the other families. The answer came as she looked at them. Billy's untidy hair was desperately in need of cutting, his heels were run down and his pants torn. Little Molly's blonde curls were dreadfully tangled in two braids and her dress showed a good two inches of ragged underpants. You'd think they came from the slums, she decided angrily. And all because Mrs. Jordan was so busy with her clubs and committees. They were really good children but others as good had been ruined by neglect.

At least they were spotless and their hair brushed to a gleam when they went to bed. But long after they had fallen asleep, Minerva sat by the fire, mending their clothes. But it was a hopeless task, they needed complete new wardrobes and motherly attention. Poor darlings, no wonder people called them hoodlums. If only Mrs. Jordan's interest was aroused, there would be great changes. Perhaps, if her pride was hurt... Suddenly an idea popped into her brain but it involved a risk and the spending of all her money, that Minerva tried to dismiss it. Could she, after all her scrimping, give up the clock? The faces of the twins rose before her eyes and she felt ashamed of her hesitation.

The next morning after leaving the children at school, she entered a grocery store on a side street. One she knew Mrs. Jordan never patronized.

Nervously patting her white hair into place under her shabby blue hat, she told the bored clerk to make up a basket. "Nineteen dollars of oranges, bread, canned vegetables and a chicken," she said, placing the money on the counter. A simple bow, no card, to be delivered to the Jordan children on Maple Street. Leaning forward she whispered, "It's a joke, you understand, more of a homecoming than a Bon Voyage." And stammering slightly, she added, "Promise never to tell who ordered it. That would spoil everything." The clerk, slightly dazed, agreed.

Having completed her mission, she went back to Main Street walking rapidly with head averted past Mr. Decker's shop. Foolish, no doubt, but she could not bear to see her cherished clock. Its chimes rang out as she passed the open door, and her heart sank. Perhaps in another two months... But if Mrs. Jordan found out what Minerva had done, her baby-sitting career would be over. For a second she was tempted to run back to the grocery store and cancel the order. And what about those poor children, were they to be allowed to grow up ragged and untended, developing all kinds of complexes? Squaring her thin shoulders, Minerva marched on briskly.

Molly and Billy ignored the basket except to swipe some plums but it electrified Mrs. Jordan on her arrival. "What is this doing here?" she demanded.

"I'm not quite sure," Minerva replied almost truthfully, for at this minute it seemed a crazy idea. "It came addressed to the children. From some organization, I believe."

"What on earth do you mean?" Mrs. Jordan gasped.

"The delivery boy said," Minerva continued lying painfully, "that some club helping the under-privileged..."

"Underprivileged," Mrs. Jordan screamed. "Miss Miller, you must be mad."

Secretly, Minerva agreed. Fortunately the twins, whom she had purposely not fussed over, came running in to create a noisy diversion. For the first time Minerva saw their mother take a long hard look at them. "You're sloppy," Mrs. Jordan said sharply, "march right upstairs. I'll be up in a second to wash you." And to Minerva, "Here is your money, Miss Miller. Why not take some fruit home with you. Obviously there's been a mistake but since you don't know the name of the store, I can hardly return it..."

Minerva noted the uncertainty in her voice. The mere idea of anyone considering her children among the needy had rocked her to the toes.

She was not surprised, therefore, to receive a call from Mrs. Jordan cancelling her services for future dates. "I'm taking the children shopping today and resigning from a number of committees," she explained. "Chairmanships entail too heavy a load."

My meddling, Minerva thought, always results in lessening of my "carriage" trade. But she smiled happily. In other ways it had paid to put all her eggs in one basket.

Caught Trout Without Hook

LEWISTON, Ida.—John Olson, 15, was wading in the Clear-Water River when he became frightened by the ugly mouth of a steelhead trout. He grabbed a rock and let fly with perfect aim.

While walking home, the lad had six offers to buy the 13-pound 36-inch trout, but became worried about having taken it without pole and hook.

"I thought sure the fish was going to bite," he said. "Obviously self-defence," ruled game warden Harry Palmer.

Second Series Of "Baby" Bonds Will Be Issued

OTTAWA.—The government said that it was considering offering a second series of "baby" bonds this fall which were inaugurated last year to replace victory loans during the war.

A return tabled for Thomas Reid (L.—New Westminster) said:

"It is clear that the Canada savings bonds received a welcome and widespread response last year as an avenue for encouraging and assisting regular savings programs of individuals and of providing a safe and readily redeemable small savings bond."

"It appears desirable to continue to provide facilities for such purposes, and it has been decided in principle, therefore, that a second series will be offered this autumn... Details of the issue have not been finally worked out, but will be announced at some appropriate time in the future."

WALKING RECORD

The walking record for the trip from New York to San Francisco was made by Abraham L. Monteverde, of Mays Landing, N.J., in 1929. The record was 79 days, 10 hours and 10 minutes for the 3,415 miles covered.

BRITISH MARKET ASSURED FOR CANADIAN LUMBER

VANCOUVER.—Sir Frederick Bain, deputy chairman of the Imperial Industries, president of the Federation of British Industries, and one of the United Kingdom's most prominent industrialists, sees no chance of Britain's buying lumber from anywhere but Canada in the near future.

Visiting Vancouver for the Foreign Trade Week here, Sir Frederick discounted reports that Russia will or could supply Britain with lumber.

"Russia is using all its own lumber and is taking all that Norway, Finland and surrounding countries have," he said.

Canadian lumber is badly needed in Great Britain, and the demand will continue for years, he added. Lumber is so scarce that the repair and building program is in difficulties in the United Kingdom. Houses have to be built with no wood on the main floor, and experiments are being made with aluminum dwellings.

Sir Frederick, head of one of the world's largest chemical concerns, thinks that Canada could quite profitably adopt an immigration program.

PARKER HOUSE Rolls

Better Bake Plenty

Add 1 envelope Royal Fast Rising Dry Yeast and 1 tsp. sugar to 1 c. lukewarm water. Stir; let stand 10 min. Scald 1 c. milk, add 5 tbs. sugar; add 2 tsp. salt, cool to lukewarm. Add to yeast mixture. Add 3 c. sifted flour, beat until perfectly smooth. Add 4 tbs. melted shortening and 3 c. more sifted flour, or enough to make easily handled dough. Knead well. Place in greased bowl. Cover; let rise in warm place until doubled in bulk, about 1½ hours. Punch dough down in bowl; let rise again in warm place until nearly doubled in bulk, about 40 min. When light, roll out ¼" thick. Brush over lightly with melted shortening. Cut with 2" biscuit cutter, crease through center heavily with dull edge of knife, fold over in pocketbook shape. Place on well-greased shallow pans 1" apart. Cover; let rise until light, about 1 hour. Bake in 400°F. oven about 15 minutes.
